

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

PREFACE.

The Registers of Beer Hacket, or Bere Hacket, to the year 1812 are contained in three volumes, the first of which commences in 1549. On the outside of the original cover of Vol. I is inscribed the following :—

“The Register Booke of the Parish of Berehackette
“for Christenings, Wedings and burials from the yeare of
“our Lord God, 1549.”

“Newelye written in the yeare of our Lord God
“1600, Robert Pomerye and John Bauller being then “Churchwardens.”

This Register as it now exists was made in accordance with the ordinance made in Convocation on the 25th October, 1597, which enjoined that the old registers on paper should be fairly and legibly written out into a parchment book. Vol. I measures $17\frac{3}{4}$ in. long by 8 in. wide, and is made of parchment, and contains 14 folios (28 pages). The entries are perfect from 1549 to 1630. Then follows three-quarters of a page containing entries for 1640, '41, '42, '46, '47, without, however, any apparent omissions. Then comes a break till 1658, from which date it is continuous to 1672, when there is another gap till 1696; from this date to 1707 it is perfect, then occurs a gap between 1707 to 1725, from which date to the end of the volume in 1745, it is perfect. In 1895 this volume was carefully mended and rebound.

Vol. II is likewise a parchment book, containing 56 pages, bound in whole calf, and measuring $12\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $7\frac{3}{4}$ in. Pages 1 to 3 contain Burials, 1773-1812. Pages 33 to 39 contain Baptisms, 1773-1812. Page 55 contains the dates on which the copies of the Register were sent up to the visitations held at Sherborne. Pages 4-32, 40-54 and 56 are blank.

The title of the book, written inside the cover, is:—

“Beer Hackett Register, in the County of Dorset, in
“the peculiar jurisdiction of the Dean of Sarum.”

Vol. III is the usual folio book for Marriages from 1757 to 1812, and contains 44 entries.

The following list of Patrons and Rectors is taken from Hutchin's “History of Dorset,” Vol. IV, page 120, with some additions by Rev. Canon Mayo:—
